GIRLS.

I may not be much good at telling
The guy that's good or mean;
But there is one I'm in for killing—
He calls his girl a "dream."
—Peoria Post.
I'm slow to scrap, but now, by gum,
It sets my dander aizin'
To have some bum take my girl hum,
And then to call her "hishn."
—Daily Texan.
My sense of right and wrong is rough,
But that boob makes me sick
Who, when a girl can't dance, looks on
And laughs and calls her "stuck."
—Sewanee Purple.
I do not wish to spill the blood,
Or carve my fellows necks.
But I could freely slice the thud
Who uses "fairer sex."
—Cumberland Weekly.
I do not pine for human gore,
Yet boldly I assert
I'd like to slap the brainless yap
Who calls a girl a "skirt."
—Cardinal and Cream.
I'm fair as far as fairness goes,
But I hope the wretch is stricken
With battered head and bloody nose
Who calls a girl a "chicken."
—Wichita Beacon.
I pine to see no injured gink
Clutch at himself and wail;
But I'd like to boot the crude galoot
Who calls a girl a "frail."
—New York Evening Sun.
I am not prone to violence,
But I would like to maul
And kick and cuff the insane cuss
Who calls a girl "some doll."
—Judge.
Primarily I am for peace—
The watchful-waiting game;
But I could soak the measly block
Who calls a girl a "dame."
—Kansas City Star.
I pine not to bring others woe—
I trust I'm not so mean—
But I would like to swat the bo
Who calls a girl a "queen."
Houston Post.
I loathe not much your queens and such,
Those names don't give me pain;
But I'd like to jolt the leering dolt
Who calls a girl a "jane."
—Carthage (Mo.) Democrat.
I know I'm not a surgeon great,
Yet I will make incision
Into the very next block-head,
Who calls his girl a "vision."

BRIGHTLAND 4241, A. S. H. B. A.

Brightland is a beautiful chestnut stallion, stocking legs and blaze in face, 15 1/4 hands high, 6 years old, has superb style and finish, good set of limbs, heavy mane and tail, a rangy neck and head, and is a perfect model. He is a saddle horse in all that the name implies and the peer of any in Tennessee. His pedigree shows him to be Kentucky bred and he is perfectly sound in every respect. He was brought to this section believing that our people want the best, being possessed of every natural saddle gait known to horse flesh. To see Brightland means that you will breed to him. Service fee only $12.50.

Brightland 4241 was sired by Highland Harrison 1663, he by Highland Denmark 730, he by Black Squirrel 58. Brightland's first dam, Stella Coons 5128, by Wyatt's Red Cloud 2197, by Indian Chief 1718.

High Mark

High Mark 1594 was sired by Highland Chief 430, he by Black Squirrel 58. First dam of High Mark, by Mark Diamond 40, he by Diamond Denmark 68.

High Mark is a beautiful red bay with black points, 15 1/4 hands high, fine form, big style, large brown eyes, fine mane and tail which he carries in elegant style. Service fee $8.00.

Ragland's Longfellow

A registered black jack with white points, 7 years old, 15 1/4 hands high, weighs 1150 pounds and one of the finest jacks in the state of Tennessee. Service fee $12.50 for mule and jennet colts and $25.00 for jack colts. Ragland's Longfellow has proven himself a fine breeder and a No. 1 jennet jack. He possesses good foot and bone, fine head and ear and his equal as a breeder cannot be found in this entire section.

Ragland Longfellow was sired by Wellington, he by Black Satin, he by King Balaria, imported and weighed over 1200 pounds. First dam Holliday's Tuscarora, he by Lockpane's Tuscarora, he by Tuscarora that sold for $4,000.

Black Sam

Is an excellent black jack with white points, who, for three seasons, has proven himself a fine breeder at this place. Service fee $8.00. He is a sure foal getter and his colts bring fancy prices.

The above stock will make the season of 1915 at the old Gwaltney & Gwaltney barn in the town of Hickman, Tenn., and in each case the service fee is to insure a living colt four months old, season due when fact is ascertained or mare transferred. All care taken to prevent accidents but not responsible should any occur. Pasturage at lowest rates. Home telephone on Hickman exchange.

No better combination of breeding stock can be found in the state. We have spent big money to get the best and believe it will be to your interest to see our stock before breeding.
